UNITED STATES ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS’ STATUS REPORT REGARDING REMAND

On June 14, 2017, this Court directed the Army Corps of Engineers (Corps) to “consider the impacts of an oil spill on fishing rights, hunting rights, or environmental justice, or the degree to which the pipeline’s effects are likely to be highly controversial.” ECF 239 at 2. On August 7, 2018, the Corps advised the Court and all parties that it expected to complete the remand process by August 31, 2018. ECF 361.

The Corps hereby provides notice to the Court and all parties that the remand is now complete. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a copy of the Corps’ Memorandum for the Record, which sets forth the Corps’ remand conclusions. The Memorandum for the Record is supported by the Corps' over 100-page Remand analysis as well as the administrative record. The Remand analysis is currently undergoing a confidentiality review before release.

Dated: August 31, 2018

Respectfully submitted,

JEFFREY H. WOOD
