

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

Nos. 12-431L, 12-592L, 13-51X

(Filed: September 30, 2019)

*****

GRACE M. GOODEAGLE, et al., *
Plaintiffs, *

v. *
*

THE UNITED STATES, *
Defendant. *

*****

QUAPAW TRIBE OF OKLAHOMA, *
Plaintiff, *

v. *
*

THE UNITED STATES, *
Defendant. *

*****

THOMAS CHARLES BEAR, et al., *
Claimants, *

v. *
*

THE UNITED STATES, *
Defendant. *

*****

ORDER

This matter is before the Court on the parties’ joint motion for temporary suspension stay of litigation. Upon consideration of the joint motion, it is hereby ORDERED that, for good cause shown,

1. The joint motion is GRANTED.
2. The litigation in this case—including all of the parties’ pre-trial and trial obligations, the associated deadlines, and the pending trial schedule—is suspended or stayed until October 7, 2019, effective immediately.

3. On October 4, 2019 the parties shall appear for a status conference at 11:00 AM in Courtroom 4 at the United States Court of Federal Claims to report on the status of their settlement process and any possible next steps in the case.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

s/ Thomas C. Wheeler
THOMAS C. WHEELER
Judge