Audrey Rose Lee Biography

Audrey Rose Lee serves as the Second Chief for the Sac and Fox Nation, having been re-elected to a four-year term in 2023. This marks her second term in office, having previously served a two-year term from 2017 to 2019. With over twenty-two years of dedicated service to her tribal community, Audrey has worked in various leadership roles within the Nation.

From 2003 to 2017, she served as Deputy Court Clerk for the Sac and Fox Nation's Tribal Court. Audrey then transitioned to a role as Tribal Administrator from 2019 to 2023, where she managed twenty-nine departments, fourteen programs, and oversaw a staff of two hundred and eighty employees.

Audrey is a graduate of Stroud High School in Stroud, Oklahoma, and earned a certificate of completion in Business Management/Marketing from Central Vo-Tech in Drumright, Oklahoma.

Her commitment to her tribal community extends beyond her official roles. Audrey has actively volunteered in numerous capacities, from distributing PPE during the COVID-19 pandemic to organizing care packages for tribal elders. She has also embraced fun and meaningful community roles, such as volunteering as Mrs. Claus and the Easter Bunny for tribal holiday events.
