

J. CONRAD “JC” SENECA

PRESIDENT OF THE SENECA NATION

J. Conrad “JC” Seneca is a prominent leader and current President of the Seneca Nation. He was sworn in as President on November 13, 2024, exactly 56 years after his father, William Seneca, took the same oath of office. JC has a long history of public service and dedication to his community. He previously served on the Nation’s Council and managed his mother’s successful campaign for Nation Clerk in 1984.

As President, JC is committed to working for the Seneca people, ensuring their voices are heard, and addressing key issues such as opioid addiction, public safety, health care, the Nation’s gaming compact with the State of New York, and land reclamation. He emphasizes the importance of unity and cooperation among the Seneca Nation and other Native nations.

In addition to his political career, JC is also a successful entrepreneur. He has been recognized as the Native Business Magazine Entrepreneur of the Year and has founded several businesses, including the Native Pride Travel Plaza, Six Nations Manufacturing, and the JC Seneca Foundation. His business ventures focus on providing employment opportunities for the Seneca people and promoting economic self-sufficiency.

JC’s leadership and dedication to his community make him a respected and influential figure within the Seneca Nation and beyond.
