

Monique Martin serves as Vice President of Intergovernmental Affairs for the Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium. She has held several roles at ANTHC including Chief of Staff.

Prior to this role, Martin served as the Director of Government Affairs at Alaska Regional Hospital. She also previously served as the Health Care Policy Advisor for the Alaska Department of Health & Social Services where we focused on Medicaid policy work and legislative affairs. She earned a Bachelor's Degree in Communications from Washington State University.

Martin was born and raised in Wrangell, Alaska and is an enrolled Tribal citizen of the Central Council of Tlingit and Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska.