

Biography of Fort Peck Tribal Member Ryan C. Rusche

Ryan C. Rusche is a Fort Peck Tribal Member and Former General Counsel of the Fort Peck Tribes. Ryan grew up on the Fort Peck Reservation in northeastern Montana and graduated from Wolf Point High School. Ryan then graduated from Carroll College in Helena, Montana, and the University of Montana School of Law.

Ryan has served as the Chair of the Montana Human Rights Commission, as well as on the board of trustees of the State Bar of Montana, the Montana Judicial Nomination Commission, the Advisory Council to the Montana Attorney General on Prescription Drug Abuse, the Montana Department of Revenue Local Government Working Group, and various other boards and commissions.