

Dear Applicant,

I am writing in response to the CRF Application (“Application”) that you submitted to the U.S. Department of the Treasury (“Treasury”) for financial assistance under Title V of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act, Pub. L. 116-136 (Mar. 27, 2020) (the “Act”).

In reviewing your Application, [], Treasury could not determine your eligibility because the following information was either incomplete or missing. Only complete applications can be considered for CRF under the Act. Please address the following:

You did not submit complete documentation for Total Government Expenditures and total amount of federal financial assistance, as well as complete worksheet summaries for expenditures and employment. Example worksheets can be found at the end of the attached instructions. If including multiple Tribal entities, please include line in the summary tables to reflect submitted 941 forms and submitted employee counts. Please provide these for the entity or entities covered in your Application. If, for some reason, you are unable to provide copies of this form for the period mention above, please provide an explanation.

Please provide your response by e-mail to: CARES-STATES@treasury.gov

Please provide as much of the requested information as possible to help Treasury determine your Tribe’s eligibility for CRF.

YOU MUST reply within 48 hours. If you have not responded, your application may be withdrawn from consideration.

If you wish to withdraw your application, please send your request with the following Subject: “[Your SLR#]-WITHDRAW REQUEST” to: CARES-STATES@treasury.gov
